Bishop in Lent call to give up television

By FATIMA ADAM

The Bishop of Blackburn is calling for Lancashire children to give up technology for Lent.

The Rt Rev Nicholas Reade is asking for a day without television as part of prayer and fasting on Ash Wednesday.

He said: "Abstain from radio, television; turn off the mobile phone, fast from video games and emails – get used to silence."

The Bishop said youngsters today are faced with an uncertain future due to the recession, therefore this should be the special focus of Church of England prayers on one of the holiest days of the year.

He is sending a letter to the county's 230 parishes calling for every church to be open on February 22, with at least one church in each of the diocese's 14 deaneries open all day on Ash Wednesday for public and private prayers.

In the letter, which he has asked to be read in every parish church, he said: "Please join me in keeping Ash Wednesday as a day of prayer and fasting for the ongoing work and mission of the diocese, and for all young people in our country affected by the current economic recession".

'SILENCE': The Rt Rev Nicholas Reade

'Abstain from technology for a day'

His guidelines suggest how fasting can be carried out, warns that it is not about 'hunger strike or dieting', and advises how fasting can be used to concentrate prayer for social justice, and place people who pray 'in solidarity with the poor of the world'.

Meals can be simplified during Lent, and the Bishop said: "Deny yourself treats and donate the amounts you save to help the hungry of the world.

"Fasting is defined as 'abstaining from food for spiritual purpose'. But in today's world abstaining from other things may be more appropriate."

Olympics: Design challenge

'MAKING IT': Jack Dunne, left, 14, and Jack Rides, 13, pupils at Shuttleworth College, Padiham, show off their design for an Olympic Village during a Make It In Manufacturing Challenge, held at the Dunkenhalgh Hotel, Clayton-le-Moors

Cadets graduate from police 'taster'

Potential police officers of the future have graduated from an East Lancashire scheme which gives teenagers an insight into law enforcement. STORY 3

TV comic sets Mechanics date

Comedienne Shappi Korsandi, left, will appear at Burnley Mechanics next month.

The star of Live At The Apollo, Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow, Friday Night with Jonathan Ross and Have I Got News for You, will perform her show, Me and My Brother in our Pants Holding Hands, from 8pm on Saturday February 11.

For tickets call 01282 664400.

Workshop plans

A vehicle repair workshop could be set to grow after plans for an extension were sent to Burnley Council. The proposals would see an extension built at the Budget Tyre and Exhausts premises, in Adlington Street, Burnley.

Bid for homes

Briercliffe Parish Council has said it will consult with residents when any plans for housing on Bend Hill are submitted.

Plans have been revealed to build 100 and 120 homes on the land behind Queen Street Mill and an application is likely to be submitted in the next two months.

Cats in need of purr-fect homes

Pets protection charity in urgent appeal for new foster families

CATS WHISKERS: Cleo and Cara need a caring home

Moggie minders are being urgently sought as an animal welfare charity recruits foster carers for cats and kittens.

Burnley and Pendle Cats Protection branch are appealing for people to come forward to provide temporary homes for unwanted felines.

The branch, which has been running since 2009, has seen a rapid increase in abandoned and stray pets and now urgently need more foster carers to help.

The organisation re-homed 100 cats in 2010 and that rose to 122 last year.

The group's programme of subsidised neutering, which is given free to those on certain benefits, saw 863 cats operated on last year.

But branch volunteer welfare officer Leanne Layock said even this had not stemmed the influx of cats.

She said: "We have seen an increase of unwanted kittens being abandoned and in turn having their own unwanted litters.

"We have a small team of fosterers who are full to capacity, and a long list of cats waiting to come into our care.

"I urgently appeal to anyone who has room in their heart and home to come forward and speak to the team and become a volunteer fosterer."

Would-be fosterers are assured they won't end up out of pocket for having cats in their care.

Leanne said: "The branch is responsible for the costs of each cat at foster until they are found a permanent home.

"That means that food, litter, toys and vet bills are all covered."

Potential foster carers are asked to call 01282 693400 or email burnleycatsprotection@yahoo.co.uk.

Tamper-proof screws to be given out

A crackdown on vehicle theft and drive-offs will see motorists in Burnley offered free tamper-proof number plate screws.

Police are holding two Safe Plates events where they will be offering to fit the special screws to people's vehicles while speaking to shoppers about preventing crime.

USEFUL TOOL: PCSO Des Wrest

Today, officers will be on the staff car park at the back of Tesco, in Centenery Way, between 11am and 3pm.

The second event will take place at the car park at Asda, in Princess Way, on Wednesday, February 1, between 11am and 3pm.

The action comes after a spate of thefts in Burnley where number plates have been stolen and used to steal fuel in drive offs from petrol stations.

Burnley PCSO Des Wrest said: "Tamper-proof screws are an extremely useful tool to help deter thieves and I hope that this initiative will help us to reduce this type of crime from occurring.

"I urge anyone who sees anything suspicious or who has any information about theft to contact us."

Citizen In brief

Sinking of Titanic centenary lectures

A series of lectures is being staged on the last Sunday of the month to commemorate the centenary of the sinking of the Titanic.

The first lecture is on January 29, at the Titanic in Lancashire Museum, in The Old Grammar School, in Church Street, Colne. Entry is £3.

Demolition bid

An application to demolish old mill buildings in Barnoldswick has been received.

The site which is intended to be cleared is the L & P Springs UK buildings, in Ravenscroft Way.

Ladies' real ale treat

Ladies can sample real ale at a special preview evening before the Pendle Beer Festival.

The event takes place at the Lesser Muni, in Colne, on Wednesday, February 1, from 7.30pm.

Tickets cost £10, with proceeds to Pendleside Hospice.

Call 01282 870152 for further information.

Cadets graduate from police 'taster'

By CHRIS GEE

Potential police officers of the future have graduated from a scheme which gives an insight into law enforcement.

A year of achievements was celebrated by 23 cadets from Burnley, Pendle, and Rossendale, as they gathered for a presentation night, held in Padiham Town Hall.

Lucy Naughton, 17, from Cliviger, was named cadet of the year, and was presented with the trophy by Chief Inspector Jon Bullas, and the Mayor and Mayoress of Padiham.

Lucy, an A-Level student at Thomas Whitham Sixth Form, said the experience of the course was 'inspirational', and has firmed up her aspirations to join the force.

She said: "All the cadets had so much fun, and learned loads on the course. My dad, Shaun, is a fireman and I've always wanted to work in the public services."

She now plans to join the Specials to get more experience.

The next intake of 40 cadets will start the 37-week course on Tuesday, April 3, at the end of which each cadet receives a volunteering and first aid qualification.

Sgt Natasha Shaw, who runs the scheme, said: "The cadets will carry out a crime prevention project in the community, fitness tests, and receive weekly inputs into the departments inside the constabulary. They decide on a charity of the year, and will complete charity walks, canoeing, jailbreaks, and other activities, to raise as much money as possible."

AWARDS EVENING: Young graduates with some of the trainers from the force

The course is open to people aged 16 to 19, and sessions run on Tuesdays, from 7pm to 9pm, in Burnley.

Call Ann Smith on 01282 472253 for more information.

The closing date for applications is January 31.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Branch Manager Kirk Williams feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Blackburn, Burnley & Chorley areas and Kirk is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Kirk a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Students ready to rock audiences

The timeless music of rock icons Queen is to be recreated in a production staged by high school students.

Blessed Trinity RC College in Burnley is staging a production of We Will Rock You, which features numerous songs from the multi-million selling group.

The cast includes students of all ages 'Under Pressure' to produce 'Killer Queen' performances.

The show, which has firmly established its status in the West End, will take place each evening from February 7 to 10, starting at 7pm.

We Will Rock You is set in the future and tells of a massive corporation, Globalsoft, which sends computer generated music to all of the people on the planet.

Singing, musical instruments and any expression of creativity are banned.

Assistant headteacher, Andrew Montrose, said: "The cast, along with supporting staff, have been working tirelessly over a number of months to develop what is undoubtedly going to be a magnificent show.

"Everyone has really got into the spirit of the songs and story."

Tickets are on sale from the college reception, priced £5 and £3.

Fashion student heading to India

By NAFEESA SHAN

A fashion student is flying to India to work with some of the country's up-and-coming designers and artists to produce a new collection.

Eastern fashion design degree student Carolyn Eastwood will spend 10 days in Ahmedabad and Bhuj to learn new skills from residency artists at Arts Reverie.

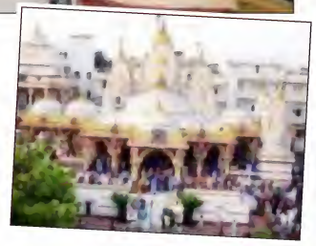
The 21-year-old, from the Pike Hill area of Burnley, will also be meeting Indian weavers and blockmakers to find inspiration for her collection as part of her course at the University of Central Lancashire.

Carolyn, who is based in the university's Burnley campus in Princess Way, will also attend textile workshops and tour the markets, mosque, and Hindu and Jain temples in Ahmedabad as part of the Cotton Exchange Project visit.

The trip has been organised by North West museums involved in the Global Threads programme. Global Threads is part of the London 2012 Cultural Olympiad programme, Stories of the World, which presents new museum exhibitions across the UK created by young people.

Carolyn will represent the Harris Museum and Art Gallery, one of six museums in the North West involved in the project.

'EXCITED: Carolyn Eastwood will be visiting Ahmedabad, right



And in India she will tour the textiles department of the National Institute of Design, and the National Institute of Fashion Technology Textiles.

Carolyn said: "I'm really excited about visiting India to see for myself how cotton is made, and meet local weavers and blockmakers. The whole trip is research for my final collection, which focuses on Islamic art, and I'm hoping to source my material and have printing blocks made whilst in India."

The former Walshaw High School pupil is considering training as a teacher after she graduates.

And she is also looking to set up her own business making hand-made products.

Mercury plays games with your life this week, so be ready for sudden changes and have a back up plan in mind, so that you can work the coming seven days to your advantage. This is an important time for you professionally and one in which you can make that all important crossover you've been dreaming of. Give me a call now to hear which friend is not all they claim to be.

Call: 0906 585 4516

Taurus
April 21st-May 21st

Forced changes in your career will actually turn out to be a blessing in disguise. Don't rule out putting a little more time aside for family please, as someone could do with your words of wisdom and support. In fact it can make all the difference as to whether they succeed or fail with a dream. News of a new arrival gives you reason to plan a trip. Call me now to hear about your week in full.

Call: 0906 585 4517

Gemini
May 22nd-June 21st

Financial aspects look good and it's clear to see that you're getting over the very muddled period which made for such a stressful end to the year. This is sure to have a knock on effect on your personal life, as offers you get from Tuesday onwards will soon prove. Don't be afraid to ask if you don't know at work, it will earn you respect not disdain. Call now, I have a message from Mercury.

Call: 0906 585 4518

Cancer
June 22nd-July 23rd

The past and present seem to be coming together beautifully of late and all your hard work and sacrifices have paid off. Listen when older faces talk as they have important advice for you which can aid you in your dreams and ambitions. Even you can't know everything! A lack of energy may see you trying to cancel weekend plans. Don't, there's someone you need to meet. Call now to hear more.

Call: 0906 585 4519

Leo
July 24th-August 23rd

There are quite a few areas of your life which you have been neglecting and this would be a really good week, Leo, to see to all that you've been putting off. Why? Because you have the backing of the stars to do things in double quick time and to get ahead in several areas of your life. Unexpected visitors come with some surprising news. Call now to hear with whom your future lays.

Call: 0906 585 4520

Virgo
August 24th-September 23rd

Personal relationships are highlighted and this is a really constructive time to work on joint dreams and ventures. I know you have not been feeling as strong as you should but the stars are behind you from Monday to give you energy and focus, so don't be afraid to use the help of the New Moon on Monday to address all you've been putting off. Call now to hear why foreign links are so lucky now.

Call: 0906 585 4521

Sagittarius
November 23rd-December 21st

Legal or official links seem to be a worry, but sticking to fact not fiction is your key to coming out of things on top. Changes are needed in your career and the longer you take to make them the harder they will be to achieve. Start making the necessary steps now and you'll be amazed at the success and help you'll find. Call my star line right now to separate the real friends from the fake.

Call: 0906 585 4524

Capricorn
December 22nd-January 20th

I know you've been under a tremendous amount of stress but things are starting to change now, as you no longer have to cope alone. Part of the problem is that your element of earth makes it hard for you to ask for help, but sometimes we all need a little help. Gambles taken in love this weekend can pay off in your favour. Give me a ring now to hear which sign can satisfy all your desires.

Call: 0906 585 4525

HEALING HELP: Janet Melville scrubs up to help during a Hands For Life charity procedure in India during her travels

Hands on traveller

A volunteer has helped medics improve the lives of people with leprosy in a small community in India.

Janet Melville, 29, from Barnoldswick, travelled to the Anandwan settlement, to assist in operations on patients left deformed from the disease.

The former West Craven High pupil, who gave up her job as a geotechnical engineer to travel the world, volunteered for a small charity called Hands For Life which carries out free medical work once a year at the Maharogi Sewa Samit hospital, near Nagpur.

She spent a week in the operating theatre helping surgeons, anaesthetists and nurses in the leprosy colony at Warora.

Janet said: "The trip was a very new experience for me as I have never been to India before or done any kind of medical work in the past.

"We worked for a week wearing hospital theatre blues for about 10 hours a day, assisting the scrub nurse, surgeons and patients as best we were able with a whole range of tasks, we had to learn on our feet.

"It was an extremely rewarding experience, seeing patients receive the most needed care and sometimes life-changing treatment, that without the team would have been unthinkable for them."

Her parents Rosemary and Tom, of Chapel Street, Barnoldswick, said she was inspired by her time as a care worker.

Rosemary said: "She has always been interested in medicine and she thinks she should have gone into it as a career. She used to be care worker at Cravenside care home so that set her off on that path.

"She is in Thailand now and is hoping to go to Austalia for six months in April. But she is hoping to team up with the charity again and go back to India. She may also go to Sierra Leone.

"We have it soft here, unlike these places. She said some of the sights have been gruesome."

To give donations, write to Hands For Life, 33 Alton Road, Wilmslow, SK9 5DY.

Real ale fans set to enjoy annual beer festival

CHEERS: East Lancashire CAMRA member Peter Fort prepares to tap a barrel at Colne Muni

It's the eighth Pendle Beer Festival next week, when visitors will raise their glasses to some of the best real ales in the country.

There will be more than 75 real ales and ciders to sample, including a selection from a number of East Lancashire breweries.

The three-day event, organised by East Lancashire CAMRA, takes place from Thursday, February 2 to Saturday, February 4.

This year it has a 'champions' theme and will be showcasing local, regional and national award-winning beers.

It will be taking place in the year that Pendle celebrates the 400th anniversary of the Pendle Witch trials and the centenary of the sinking of the Titanic, in which Colne band master Wallace Hartley perished. The festival will be held in Colne Municipal Hall and will once again raise money for Pendleside Hospice.

A ladies-only preview and sample evening takes place the day before the doors officially open, so they can sample the different beers for themselves in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere. This takes place on Wednesday, February 1 at 7.30pm and is a ticket only event, as numbers are limited.

The last year's seventh beer festival welcomed a record crowd of more than 2,600 real ale lovers, who supped more than £10,000 pints and raised more than £5,600 for the hospice. The organisers are hoping for similar success in 2012 and a spokesman said: "Judging by last year's record

"We would like to support responsible drinking too and make available free soft drinks — by popular demand our own non-alcoholic sarsaparilla and dandelion and burdock will be on hand-pump."

The festival is open from 5 to 11pm on Thursday and from 11.30am until 11pm on Friday and Saturday and there's free entry for CAMRA members, with a valid membership card.

Among the East Lancashire breweries taking part and the beers they will be showcasing are:

- Barnoldswick Brewery — with its Hare of the Dog.
- Bowland Brewery, Clitheroe, — Hen Harrier, Odd Shaped Ball and Wardsley Gold.
- Fallons of Darwen — Hex Original and Tattooers Arms.
- Hopstar, Darwen — Smokey Joe's Black Beer.

McQuoid keen to aid play-off bid

NEW BOY: Josh McQuoid in action on his Clarets debut on Saturday

Debut boy backs Clarets' top six hopes

By SUZANNE GELDARD

Burnley new boy Josh McQuoid believes the Clarets are good enough to reach the play-offs this season – and he wants to play his part.

The versatile striker will have returned to parent club Millwall by then, with his 93-day loan deal set to expire a week before the campaign ends.

But McQuoid is determined to help Burnley have another shot at the Premier League.

"Out of the sides I've seen and played against, Burnley are up there with the best," said the 22-year-old, who made his debut from the bench in the second half of Saturday's goalless draw at home to Derby County 24 hours after signing.

"They have a good chance of figuring in the play-offs and going all the way."

The move was instigated by Martin Paterson and Junior Stanislas both falling victim to hamstring injuries against Middlesbrough the previous weekend, and target man Sam Vokes returning to Wolves at the end of his loan deal.

Vokes and McQuoid were teammates at Bournemouth after starting their professional careers at the south coast club.

"I spoke to Sam while he was here," said Northern Ireland international McQuoid.

"We're actually from the same place and grew up together. He liked it here and recommended it to me.

"I phoned him up and told him I've nicked his (shirt) number already. It's just a loan. I see my future at Millwall.

"But Eddie and Jason (Tindall) have helped me a lot in my career, so it is nice to link up with them again.

"I was happy to come here. I know the manager quite well and felt it would the right move for me.

"I want to play as much football as I can and hopefully get some goals and help the team push up the league."

It was Burnley's first goalless draw in a year, and only the second time they have failed to score in a Championship game since October.

But McQuoid insists they have nothing to worry about in the attacking department.

"There are a lot of good attacking players fighting for positions, which is good for the side," he said.

"There are different formations.

"There were a lot of chances on Saturday, we were unlucky. The weather didn't help. But as long as you get the chances, sooner or later they're bound to go in."

Society supporting Bobcats

The Bobcats Swimming Club had a memorable 2011 – and they had the Society of St George, Burnley to thank for a helping hand.

The Society was founded in 1939 to support charities and good causes in the Burnley area. And that is what it has been doing with the town's swimming club.

The Society donated the Robert Monk Memorial Cup last summer, presented to Robert Bryce for his effort and application in training. Robert has since gone on to record personal best times and win medals at galas.

And, in October, Ben Edwards, a young triathlete who represents Great Britain at international level, received funding from the Society to enable him to continue swimming training with Burnley Bobcats.

Now the Society has presented a cheque to ensure the Bobcats can continue to access long course training at Manchester Aquatic Centre. Bobcats chairman Simon Holding was delighted to receive a cheque from society president Geoff Green at a recent training session, at St Peter's Centre.

Brett, 13, books place in NW boxing finals

Brett Windle, of Sandygate Boxing Club, has booked his place in the North West Schoolboy Boxing Finals after a superb performance to beat reigning champion Matthew Rennie.

From the opening bell, the Burnley fighter kept the centre of the ring, keeping a high guard and quick feet, and rolling under the jab of the taller Manx ABC fighter.

Windle, 13, took the first round 4-2 on the Olympic-style computer scoring.

Rennie, who had an impressive 9-1 winning record, came out for the second round looking to up his work-rate, but Windle bobbed and weaved and stayed out of trouble and took a 6-4 lead in to the final round.

And the Shuttleworth College year nine student made sure of his place in the finals with another assured display in the final round to win 8-6.

He joins fellow Sandygate fighters Jerome Lawton, 15, Charlie Martin, 14, and 11-year-old Reece Jackson in the North West finals.

TOP FORM: Brett Windle in action

And all four will be hoping to emulate Sam Tucker and James Kimberley as ABA NW Schoolboy champions.

"I was over the moon with Brett," said coach Nik Tucker.

"Rennie is a class act and we knew it would be close.

"Brett stuck to the plan and didn't look troubled at all.

"It was the best he has performed and he deserves the accolades."
